RULE 26 – CLAIM FREE DISCOUNT

A Claim Free Discount will be applied to the otherwise applicable Package Premium (as shown in the Rate Page Calculation Options Page) based on a policyholder's chargeable claim experience. This discount is not applicable to the Renters form. Determination of the chargeability of claims and reclassification due to the time elapsed since claims became chargeable will occur at each renewal. If the following criteria are met, multiply the otherwise applicable Package Premium (as shown in the Rate Page Calculations Page) by the factor displayed on the Rate Page Calculation Options Page.

A policy qualifies for the Claim Free Discount if both the following conditions apply:

1. The named insured or spouse has maintained a Homeowners, Renters or Mobilehome insurance policy issued by a non-residual market insurer for the twelve months prior to the effective date of the policy, and

2. No Group A, Group B or Group C claim (as defined in Rule 25) has occurred during the five year period prior to the policy effective date.

Notes:

a) Any Group A, Group B or Group C claim which occurred under a named insured's prior Homeowners, Renters, Condominium, or Mobilehome insurance policy, as well as under the current Homeowners policy, will disqualify a policy for the Claim Free Discount, if that claim occurred during the applicable time period. Claims paid by a Qualifying Company (as defined in Rule 25) for which payments do not exceed $250 will not disqualify a policy for the Claim Free Discount.

b) For renewal business, claims will be evaluated as of 45 days prior to the policy effective date. Claims occurring between this date and the policy effective date will not be considered until the next renewal. For new business, claims will be evaluated as of the written date of the policy.

Exception:

1. If the current policy is a secondary residence policy, a claim that occurred under a prior policy will not disqualify the policy for the Claim Free Discount, except if the claim occurred at the same insured residence and had been chargeable under a policyholder's previous Qualifying Company policy.

RULE 27 – PARTIALLY RENOVATED HOME DISCOUNT

Multiply the otherwise applicable Package Premium (as shown in the Rate Page Calculation Options Page) by the appropriate discount factor if the insured premises has undergone qualifying renovations. This rule applies to the Standard and Deluxe policy forms.

Administration of the Discount

- Qualifying renovations are those that were completed by a licensed contractor and had been reported to Allstate before December 31, 2001 or were completed by a licensed contractor and meet the following standards:

  1) Plumbing – Plumbing must be updated to conform to current local codes with new water supply lines. New plumbing fixtures and components must be installed throughout the dwelling.

  2) Heating and Cooling – The entire heating and cooling system must be updated to conform to current local codes. For heating, complete replacement of the heating plant or heat exchanger is required. For cooling, replacement of the central air conditioning unit or a/c compressor is required, if located inside the dwelling. Replacement of ductwork or registers is not required for forced air furnace, nor are water lines or registers required for a hydronic heat system.

  3) Electrical – Replacement of fuse or breaker boxes and updating fuse or breaker boxes to conform to local codes and meet system demands is required. Replacement of switches, wiring, fixtures, and components necessary to meet system demands is required. Adding additional circuits without increasing total system service does not qualify.

  4) Roof – For a roof with asphalt shingles, either completely covering the existing layer of shingles with a new layer of asphalt shingles, up to a maximum of 1 layer, or completely replacing the current layer of shingles is required for qualification of this discount. Only replacing portions of shingles does not qualify for this discount. Metal, wood, tile, or slate roofs must be completely removed and replaced.

- This rule is not applicable to dwellings in the course of construction.

Schedule of Discounts

To calculate the Renovated Home Discount factor, add together all appropriate discounts and subtract the total from one. A qualifying renovation will first be considered for this rule at the first renewal after the renovation is completed and will continue to be considered based on the schedule.

When a zip code is added by the U.S. Post Office in Alabama by dividing an existing zip code into two or more new zip codes, the rating zone assigned to the existing zip code should be used. For example, if zip code 12345 in rating zone 1 is divided into two new zip codes, 22345 and 33345, policies in the new zip codes should still be rated in zone 1.

Zip codes may refer to post offices rather than geographical locations. Zip codes assigned to post office boxes rather than geographical locations should not be used for rating purposes.

1. Determine the Package Premium:

   a) Determine the appropriate $250 deductible premium for the Coverage A limits shown on the Package Premium Pages.

   b) Premiums for policies with Coverage A limits less than $20,000 may be developed by subtracting $1 per $1,000 for the $20,000 premium.

   c) Multiply the appropriate $250 deductible premium by a Rate Adjustment Factor of 1.2440.

2. Tropical Cyclone Deductible – Apply the appropriate factor (Rule 5.D.)

21. $250 Theft Deductible - Multiply the $50 or $100 Deductible premium by .95

22. Add the Fixed Expense Policy Fee shown on the Supplementary Rate Page

23. For 3/4 Family Dwelling add amount shown on Supplementary Rate Pages

24. Add the appropriate Reinsurance Charge. Determine the charge as follows:

    a. Determine the appropriate charge for the Reinsurance Charge from the Reinsurance Charge Pages. The deductible amount should match the policy's Tropical Cyclone Deductible. If the policy does not have a Tropical Cyclone Deductible, then the deductible should match the Wind/Hail deductible. If the policy does not have either a Tropical Cyclone or Wind/Hail deductible, the Reinsurance Charge deductible should match the policy's All Peril Deductible.

    b. Multiply the appropriate charge by a Reinsurance Rate Adjustment Factor of 1.000 (round to three decimals).

    c. Multiply by the appropriate Coverage A limits factor as shown in the Reinsurance Charge Pages.

    The Reinsurance Charge will not apply to policies that exclude coverage for losses related to wind.

25. Add the additional premium applicable for increased limits or additional coverage and subtract any applicable credit for reduced coverage shown on the Supplementary Rate Pages. Where applicable, use the same deductible amount as Coverage A.

The following discounts, credits, and surcharges should be applied in the order listed.

1. Multiply the appropriate premium from the rate pages by a Rate Adjustment factor of 1.358. (Note: Premiums for policies with Coverage C limits less than $6,000 may be developed by subtracting $1 per $1,000 from the $6,000 premium and then applying the Rate Adjustment Factor).

2. $50, $500 or $1,000 Deductible - Multiply $100 Deductible premium by 1.111, .778, or .700

3. Tropical Cyclone Deductible – Apply the appropriate factor (Rule 5.D.)

11. Rating Group Classification: Renters - Multiply by the appropriate factor (Rule 33)

12 Add the Fixed Expense Policy Fee shown on the Supplementary Rate Page.

13 Add the appropriate Reinsurance Charge. Determine the charge as follows:

a. Determine the appropriate charge for the Reinsurance Charge from the Reinsurance Charge Pages. The deductible amount should match the policy's Tropical Cyclone deductible. If the policy does not have Tropical Cyclone deductible, the Reinsurance Charge deductible should match the policy's All Peril deductible.

b Multiply the appropriate charge by a Reinsurance Rate Adjustment Factor of 1.000 (round to three decimals).

c. Multiply by the appropriate Coverage A limits factor as shown in the Reinsurance Charge Pages.

The Reinsurance Charge will not apply to policies that exclude coverage for losses related to wind.

The rules, premiums and rate calculations shown in this manual govern the writing of the Deluxe Plus Homeowners Policy.

RULE 1 - TYPE OF POLICY

The Deluxe Plus Homeowners Policy may be written to insure owners of dwellings. Under Section I, buildings are covered from physical loss (subject to those exclusions specified in the policy) and contents are covered on a "named peril" basis. Coverage for contents, unless specifically noted, is afforded on a replacement cost basis.

RULE 2 - ELIGIBILITY

1. One family dwellings which are used exclusively for residential purposes may be insured under a Deluxe Plus Homeowners Policy issued in the name of the owner-occupant of the dwelling. This policy cannot be issued if such dwelling is under construction.

2. If the dwelling is also owned by persons not named in the policy, their interests in real property and liability at the described premises may be covered by use of the Additional Insured Nonoccupant Endorsement without additional premium.

3. The dwelling must have a smoke detector on every floor, a fire extinguisher and dead bolt locks on all exterior doors.

Exception

Deluxe Plus Homeowners Policy may not be written on farm property. Property, however, is considered nonfarm and dwelling rates will be used when the agricultural products produced on the entire land involved are incidental to the occupancy of the dwelling, are principally for home consumption, and farming is not the occupation of the Insured.

RULE 3 - MANDATORY COVERAGES (SECTIONS I AND II)

The Deluxe Plus Homeowners Policy affords coverage under Section I and Section II.

A. Section I - Physical Damage

Section I affords coverage against loss to the described dwelling, including attached and unattached structures, and personal property resulting from an insured peril. Other additional protection is provided such as that for the loss of use of residence premises. The Package Premium affords coverage subject to the limits of liability set forth below.

1. Coverage A - Dwelling Protection

   Dwelling protection losses are subject to the limit set forth on the Declarations Page.

2. Coverage B - Other Structures Protection

   Other structures protection provided under this policy is subject to a limit of 10% of Coverage A.

3. Coverage C - Personal Property Protection

   Personal property protection losses are subject to a limit equal to 75% of Coverage A. This limit may not be reduced.

B. Section II - Family Liability and Guest Medical Protection

Section II affords coverage against loss resulting from personal liability and guest medical expense. The Package Premium affords coverage subject to the following limits.

Coverage X - Family Liability Protection - $100,000

Coverage Y - Guest Medical Protection - $1,000

RULE 4 - ADDITIONAL COVERAGES

All Optional Coverages and Other Endorsements as listed under RULE 4 -ADDITIONAL COVERAGES in the HOMEOWNERS MANUAL and applicable to the Deluxe policy are also applicable to the Deluxe Plus policy with the following additional protection provided under Section I.

A. Optional Coverages

Coverage is provided for increase in cost after a covered loss due to the enforcement of building codes; and rekeying exterior door locks after a covered theft loss. Therefore, Coverages BC and LR are not available for the Deluxe Plus policy.

B. Other Endorsements

The Dwelling in the Course of Construction Endorsement is not available.

RULE 5 - DEDUCTIBLES

Policies may be written with the deductibles shown on the Rate Page Calculation Options Page applicable to perils insured under Section I. All deductibles apply on a flat (nondisappearing) basis. Deductibles do not apply to Loss of Use of Your Residence Premises, Fire Department Charges, Credit Card and Check Forgery provisions.

Premiums for a policy written with a $250 deductible are shown on the Package Premium Pages. Premiums for other deductible options may be calculated by adjusting the $250 deductible premium by the factor shown on the Rate Page Calculation Options Page. Premiums determined by applying the appropriate deductible factor are subject to the applicable maximum dollar credit shown on the Rate Page Calculation Options Page.

Tropical Cyclone Deductible

1. A minimum deductible of 5% of Coverage A limits for Deluxe Plus Policies subject to a minimum equal to the Other Peril Deductible elected under the policy applies to the peril of tropical cyclone for the following counties:

   Baldwin Mobile

   An optional deductible equal to 10% of Coverage A limits for Deluxe Plus Policies is also available for the above listed areas. Optional Tropical Cyclone Deductibles are subject to a minimum equal to the Other Peril Deductible elected under the policy.

2. A minimum deductible of 2% of Coverage A limits for Deluxe Plus Policies subject to a minimum equal to the Other Peril Deductible elected under the policy applies to the peril of tropical cyclone for the following counties:

   Clarke Conecuh Covington Escambia Geneva Houston
   Monroe Washington

   Optional deductibles equal to 5% or 10% of Coverage A limits for Deluxe Plus Policies are also available for the above listed areas. Optional Tropical Cyclone Deductibles are subject to a minimum equal to the Other Peril Deductible elected under the policy.

Premiums for these counties may be determined by multiplying the appropriate premium by the Tropical Cyclone Deductible Factor as well as any current deductible factors shown on the appropriate Rate Page Calculation Options Page.

A Tropical Cyclone Deductible cannot be purchased if the peril of Windstorm and Hail is excluded as defined in Rule 20.

RULE 6 - RATING INFORMATION

RULE 6 - RATING INFORMATION as outlined in the HOMEOWNERS MANUAL is also applicable to DELUXE PLUS HOMEOWNERS MANUAL.

RULE 7 - PREMIUM DETERMINATION

The premium calculations should be done in the order outlined on the Rate Page Calculation Options Page.

Note: All premium calculations shall be rounded to the nearest dollar. A premium of $.50 or more shall be rounded to the next higher whole dollar.

RULE 8 - SECONDARY RESIDENCE

18. Add the Fixed Expense Policy Fee shown on the Supplementary Rate Page

19. Add the appropriate Reinsurance Charge. Determine the charge as follows:

    a. Determine the appropriate charge for the Reinsurance Charge from the Reinsurance Charge Pages found in the Homeowners Manual. The deductible amount should match the policy's Tropical Cyclone Deductible. If the policy does not have a Tropical Cyclone Deductible, then the deductible should match the Wind/Hail deductible. If the policy does not have either a Tropical Cyclone or Wind/Hail deductible, the Reinsurance Charge deductible should match the policy's All Peril Deductible.

    b. Multiply the appropriate charge by a Reinsurance Rate Adjustment Factor of 1.000 (round to three decimals).

    c. Multiply by the appropriate Coverage A limits factor as shown in the Reinsurance Charge Pages found in the Homeowners Manual.

    The Reinsurance Charge will not apply to policies that exclude coverage for losses related to wind.

20. Add the additional premium applicable for increased limits or additional coverage. Where applicable, use the same deductible amount as Coverage A.

    Note: All premium calculations shall be rounded to the nearest dollar. A premium of $0.50 or more shall be rounded to the next higher whole dollar.
